

PAGE EIGHT

CORPUS CHRISTI CALLER

nings Southwest Texas Towns

By The

CALLER PUBLISHING COMP.

MEMBER ASSOCIATED PRESS

John W. Stayton, Mgr.

SUBSCRIPTION RA

Daily and Sunday, or relatives

One month

Sunday only, one

By car or in a car spent the

CORPUS CHRISTI

in the benefit of

Per week. T. Setters' returned several weeks' stay at

Bull

Rice returned Thursday

after spending several days in as the guest of Mr. and

T. Setters and other friends.

J. M. Koeing of Arkansas

lunched at the Baptist Church Tuesday evening. Rev. Brister and Mr.

John W. C. McElroy of Bishop came over to attend the service.

W. W. Stach of San Antonio is visiting his daughter Mrs. F. F. Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Hesser, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hesser went to Refugio

Saturday to attend Miss Beard's funeral. They were accompanied home by Miss Ethel Hesser and baby of Greenville, Miss.

Mrs. W. J. Jones and daughter,

Elizabeth of Brownsville en route home from the Methodist Congress at Houston stopped over in Kingsville

several days at the guest of Mrs.

Cloud.

Mrs. L. C. Roberts entertained the

H. S. Club on Monday afternoon. After spending an hour embroidering, the guests were treated to dainty refreshments concluding a pleasant meeting.

Miss Kathryn Smith, informally entertained two tables of bridge on Wednesday from 2 until 5 p. m.

On Thursday evening May 28, Mrs.

J. E. Weir was hostess to the 42 Club.

On this occasion, the ladies' husbands were the club's guests making the meeting very enjoyable.

Mr. J. H. Shaw and Mrs. Beulah Lee

were quietly married on Saturday,

May 15, at 7:30 p. m., Judge H. F. Wilson officiating.

The Auction Bridge Club met with

Mrs. A. G. Fromme on Thursday afternoon. There were seven tables, all the members being present. After the prizes had been awarded, Mrs. Fromme served a salad and ice cream.

Rockport.

Mrs. Walter Moreman and children are visiting Mrs. Moreman's brother,

Eugene Moore, and family at Corpus Christi.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Staudt are entertaining their daughter, Mrs. C. M. Harrde, and children of Waco, who are here for the summer.

Mrs. Jos. N. Mathis and daughters,

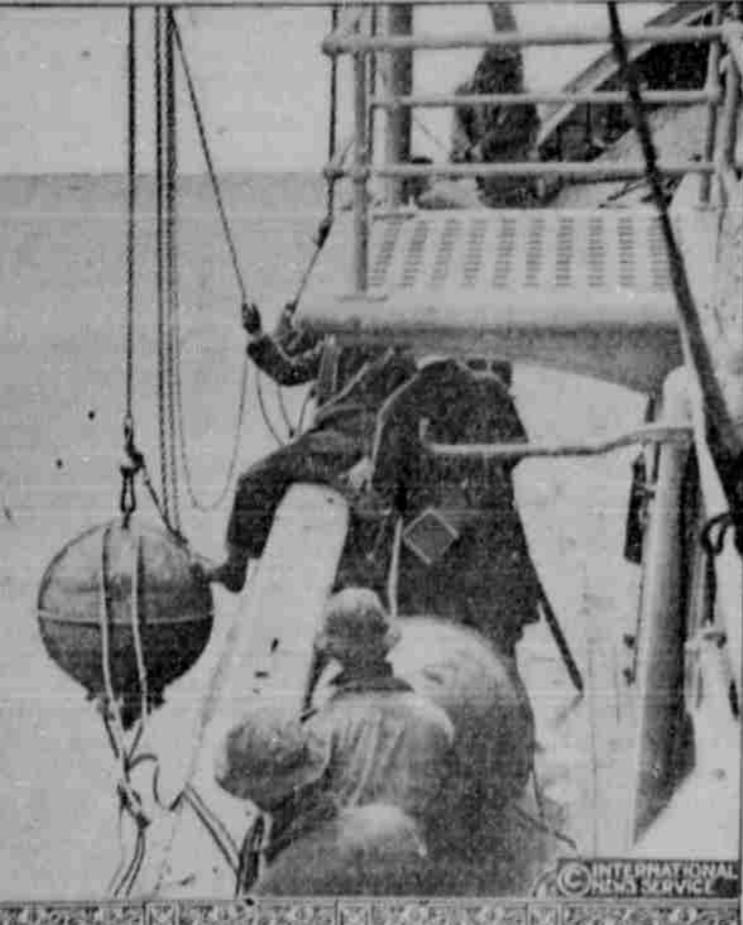

Mrs. Jos. P. Green, and Miss Estelle

Belle Mathis, and Robert Hazen, went to White Point Tuesday in the Mathis

car. On their return they left Mrs.

MINE PLANTING BY AMERICAN ARMY

Photograph of mine-planting drill by the coast defense corps of the United States army, showing a harbor mine about to be dropped over the side of a ship. These mines weigh about 150 pounds, and in time of war are loaded with trinitrotoluene explosive, and set off by electric current from the shore.

Gates of her home at La Quinta.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bellum, Mrs.

Mrs. E. A. Stevens and J. G. Danner

and Miss Katherine McMillan arrived to Aransas Pass Saturday where they called on Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Deane and Mrs. Theo Morris.

The out of town guests of the Bellum well cottage last week were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Guesson of Bevilacqua, Dr.

Starkford, or Lafayette, La., and Alvin

Davis of San Antonio.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorain Jo Coyle and two children, Miss Amelia Jo Coyle

and maid of San Antonio are guests at the Davis home.

William Evans of Wiggin's Collophos

is visiting his daughters, Misses Edna and Carrie Evans.

Mr. R. L. Brown and Miss Josephine

Brown of San Antonio, and H. W.

Brown of Chaffey, Texas, are here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Davis.

Major and Mrs. J. M. Bell and Mrs.

G. C. Green were at the Las Flores

Tuesday at the guests of Mr. and Mrs.

Clarendon Grimes.

The society event of the week was the reception given Thursday by Mrs.

A. L. Head in honor of ten additional friends. Nearly 600 ladies called during the afternoon and had the pleasure of hearing voices selecting renderings by the honorees. The meeting was assisted in dispensing refreshments by

Miss Gladys Smith, Ruth Johnson

and Margaret McVea.

Mr. H. C. Patterson was in charge of the five hundred club luncheon that was held Saturday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Abertson returned from a visit to Dallas and Fort Worth on Tuesday.

Misses Hunter of Tampa, Fla.

were here this week.

Rooms and Board.

Nicely furnished rooms with board class in. For rates call phone 851 or inquire at 416. Tel. 416. 416

Place, under new management.

(Advertisement.)

The Caller carries all the news

Robstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Keelan and Miss

Louise Keelan motored to Corpus Christi

Friday afternoon.

J. B. Edling was in town Friday

transacting business.

George J. A. Whitehurst and Allen of

Corpus Christi were in Robstown

on business.

Miss Ollie and Ruby Harrel will return to their home in Gregory Saturday after an enjoyable visit to Memphis. Henry, George, and Harry Pierres.

County Commissioner John Bartell

of Robstown was here Thursday and Friday.

Miss Nona Wilson entertained the Beth and Chatter Club Thursday afternoon at the beautiful country home of her parents. The members motored out and were received by the matress in her usual charming manner.

The house was tastefully decorated with cornucopias and roses. Just prior to the departure of the guests they were invited into the dining room.

There a lovely luncheon was served to

Misses Louie Keelan, Louise Welch, Margaret, Dorothy, Lorraine Thompson, Gilly

Harrel, Mary, Helen, Barbara, and Wanda Hartell.

W. W. Wright has been selected supervisor of Houston schools in high Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hampshire were in Houston reading Saturday.

August Winkler one of our successful Farmers was reading in Houston Saturday.

W. W. Wright has been selected supervisor of the school system in Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Shantz

of Corpus Christi were in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Shantz

of Corpus Christi were in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Shantz

of Corpus Christi were in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Shantz

of Corpus Christi were in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Shantz

of Corpus Christi were in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Shantz

of Corpus Christi were in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Shantz

of Corpus Christi were in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Shantz

of Corpus Christi were in town Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Shantz

of Corpus Christi were in town Saturday.